PROVISIONAL ADMISSION STATEMENT for ADVANCED PROGRAMS

Provisional Admission provides applicants an opportunity to enroll in coursework while completing the admission process.

PLEASE NOTE: Provisional Admission is available to applicants who have been awarded an undergraduate degree from an accredited institution, and requires that you read and accept the terms of Provisional Graduate Student status.

I, _____,

Please provide full name (last name, first name, and middle initial) understand that I have been admitted to The University of Oklahoma as a Provisional Graduate Student and, as such, am neither guaranteed nor promised admission to a graduate degree program at The University of Oklahoma. As a Provisional Graduate Student, I may enroll in a limited number of credit hours while completing the admission process. Further, I understand that while in Provisional Graduate Student status:

- I am permitted to enroll in a maximum of nine credit hours.
- It is my responsibility to limit my enrollment to nine credit hours of letter-graded coursework.
- It is my responsibility to provide official copies of my transcripts to CCE Registration and Records within 120 days.

Graduate College Admission Policy for Advanced Programs is available on the Graduate College website. Admission is based on the last 60 semester credit hours of letter-graded coursework of an earned baccalaureate degree. Grade Point Average (GPA) is calculated through the semester in which the last 60 semester credit hours of letter-graded coursework were completed. Admission will not be granted to anyone with an undergraduate GPA below 2.75 unless supplemental admission criteria are met. For admission based on graduate credit, at least 12 hours of letter-graded graduate coursework with a minimum GPA of 3.00 is required. Requests for exception to admission and transfer credit policies are evaluated on a case-by-case basis.

Applicants with International transcripts and applicants seeking admission as a Visitor or Unclassified student may be admitted as a Provisional Graduate Student, but must meet additional admission requirements before being admitted to a degree program. Please review the Graduate College Bulletin for details on required credentials.

I understand that my Provisional Graduate Student status will lapse in 120 days. If I have not been admitted to a degree program by the end of 120 days, I will not be eligible to register in further coursework at the University of Oklahoma. Requests for extension beyond 120 days must be approved by the Graduate College Dean. As a Provisional Graduate Student, I may enroll only in classes offered through Advanced Programs. Any enrollments in regular semester classes offered on the Norman Campus will be cancelled.

GRADUATE COLLEGE ADMISSION POLICY for ADVANCED PROGRAMS

REQUIREMENTS	ADMISSION DECISION
Application pending with agreement to provisional terms	Provisional Admission: Provisional Admission provides the Advanced Programs applicant an opportunity to enroll in a limited number of credit hours while completing the admission process. The Provisional Graduate Student must limit their enrollment to nine credit hours and is neither guaranteed nor promised admission to a graduate degree program at the University of Oklahoma. Provisional Admission is granted for 120 days. Requests for extension beyond 120 days must be approved by the Graduate College Dean.
GPA 3.00 or Higher	Full Admission: Student admitted in full standing to a degree program.
GPA 2.75 to 2.99	Conditional Admission with Academic Deficiency: Student is conditionally admitted to a degree program and will be monitored during their first 12 credit hours of letter-graded coursework. The GPA earned on the first 12 credit hours of letter-graded coursework must be at least 3.00. No grades of D, F, or U will be permitted while conditionally admitted. Students who earn an excessive number of grades of "I" or "W" while conditionally admitted may be subject to disenrollment.
GPA 2.25 to 2.74	Conditional Alternate Admission: Alternate Admission criteria are degree program specific. Applicants with a GPA between 2.25-2.74 on the last sixty hours from an earned baccalaureate degree or less than a 3.00 grade point average on at least 12 hours of graduate level coursework may be considered for alternate admission provided at least three years have elapsed since awarding of the applicant's baccalaureate degree. (Some academic units require longer periods.) To be admitted, the student must meet the alternate admission criteria specified by the degree program to which they are applying. Once alternate admission criteria have been met, the student will be granted conditional alternate admission to a degree program and will be monitored during their first 12 credit hours of letter-graded coursework. The GPA earned on the first 12 credit hours of letter-graded coursework must be at least 3.00. No grades of D, F, or U will be permitted while conditionally admitted. Students who earn an excessive number of grades of "I" or "W" while conditionally admitted may be subject to disenrollment.
GPA below 2.25	Denied: Applicants who do not meet Conditional Alternate Admission requirements will be denied admission to a degree program.
NOTE: Grade Point Average (GPA) is calculated through the semester in which the last 60 semester credit hours of letter-graded coursework were completed. If the 60th hour falls in the middle of a semester, the entire semester will be used in the calculation. If the Graduate College cannot determine the last 60 credit hours, the entire transcript will be evaluated. All letter grades received, including coursework that was repeated for a better grade, will be used in the calculation. Post-baccalaureate coursework will be considered as supplemental information in determining admission if it consists of at least 12 credit hours of upper division coursework. For admission based on graduate credit, at least 12 hours of letter-graded graduate coursework with a 3.00 GPA is required. Requests for exception to admission and transfer credit policies are evaluated on a case-by-case basis.
